

MAPS CONFERENCE hosted by University Goce Delchev – Shtip

23rd September 2021, Shtip

OUTSOURCING AND COOPERATION WITH THIRD COUNTRIES – DECONSTRUCTING THE FORMAL AND THE INFORMAL IN MIGRATION AND ASYLUM POLICIES

The conference is convened by Ana Nikodinovska Krstevska and Olga Koshevaliska, University Goce Delchev – Shtip, as part of the MAPS Jean Monnet Network.

PARTICIPANT BIOGRAPHIES

Maria Gavouneli

Dr Maria Gavouneli, LL.M. (Cantab), Ph.D. (Cantab) (Guggenheim Prize), is Associate Professor of International Law, at the Faculty of Law & Athens Public International Law Center – Athens PIL, National & Kapodistrian University of Athens. She was Fulbright Scholar – Greece at the University of California Berkeley (2018-2019) and Associate Research Fellow, at the Institute of Advanced Legal Studies, University of London (2005-2019). She is the President of the Greek National Commission for Human Rights and Senior Policy Advisor, of the Hellenic Foundation for European & Foreign Policy – ELIAMEP. She regularly acts as visiting professor and lecturer in several universities and research institutions around the world and has published extensively on the law of the sea, energy and environmental law as well as migration and human rights issues.

Violeta Moreno - Lax

Dr Violeta Moreno-Lax is Reader in Law, founder of the Immigration Law programme, and Co-Founder and former Co-Director of the Centre for European and International Legal Affairs (CEILA) at Queen Mary University of London. She is also Visiting Professor at the College of Europe, founder and general coordinator of SAROBMED: The Search and Rescue Observatory for the Mediterranean, member of the Legal Action Committee of the Global Legal Action Network (GLAN), member of the Advisory Board of Equal Rights Abroad, member of the Board of Directors of the International Refugee Rights Initiative (IRRI), Fellow of the Centre of European Law of King's College London, Senior Research Associate of the Refugee Law Initiative of the University of London, Co-Chair of The Refugee Law Observatory, and member of the Steering Committee of the Migration Law Network. Before coming to Queen Mary, she was a Lecturer in Law (Assistant Professor) at the Universities of Liverpool (2012-13) and Oxford (2011-12). She has held visiting positions at the Universities of Ghent (2019), Macquarie and New South Wales (2017), Oxford (2010-12), and Nijmegen (2009-10), as well as the Max Planck Institute for Comparative Public and International Law (2018) and The Hague Academy of International Law (2010). She has published widely in the areas of international and European refugee and migration law, including her recent monograph: Accessing Asylum Europe: Extraterritorial Border Controls and Refugee Rights Under EU Law (Oxford University Press, 2017). And she regularly acts as expert consultant for the EU institutions and other organisations in her areas of expertise.

Liliana Haquin Saenz

Liliana Haquin Saenz has a PhD in International Law and she is Lecturer in International Law and New Technologies and Human Rights at the Faculty of Law of the Catholic University of Lyon, and member of the International Law Centre at the Faculty of Law, University Jean Moulin, Lyon 3.

Liliana Haquin Saenz has finished BA and MA studies, and obtained her PhD in Public International Law in France (University Jean Moulin, Lyon 3). She is a team member of the Jean Monnet project in matters of asylum and migration and EU Foreign policy (MAPS).

Her current research is focused on European asylum and migration policies vis-à-vis externalization of asylum requests, and the future of Climate Refugees.

Ester Del Nonno

Ester Del Nonno is currently a PhD candidate in International Law at the University Jean Moulin of Lyon 3. Her research focuses on environmental migration from an International and Comparative Law perspective.

She graduated in Law at the University of Rome 3 with a dissertation on “The Chagos Archipelago Issue in International Law”, after a research stay at the Center of International Law at the University Jean Moulin of Lyon 3.

Mehtap Kaygusuz Akbay

Mehtap Kaygusuz Akbay has completed her undergraduate education at Ankara University, Faculty of Political Science (Department of International Relations) (Turkey).

She has graduated in International Law and then attained a graduate degree in European Law at Jean-Moulin- Lyon III University (France).

She has obtained her PhD in Public International Law (Jean Moulin, Lyon III University).

She is a member of the International Law Centre at the Faculty of Law (Jean Moulin, Lyon III University) and works currently as a doctor research assistant at Istanbul University (Faculty of Political Science).

Her current research is focused on international environmental law and environmental migration.

Gemma Andreone

Gemma Andreone is Director of Research in the Institute of International Legal Studies of the Italian National Research Council (ISGI-CNR). Since 2015, she is Editor in chief of the Maritime Safety and Security Law Journal, open access e peer reviewed journal - www.marsafelawjournal.org- ISSN 2464-9724 (ranked in Italy as an A class review). To date, she has been coordinator, principal investigator and member of a number of national and international scientific projects and of training activities. She is member of the Scientific Council of INDEMER. She is legal adviser and solicitor at the Bar of Rome (Italy) and she is consultant for the Italian Ministry for economic development and for the Italian Ministry for foreign affairs and international cooperation. She has been teaching International Law as adjunct Professor of at the University of Naples L'Orientale from 2001 to 2013. She is author of books, articles and papers on several international law issues, and especially on the law of the sea, fisheries and Mediterranean Sea governance.

Gabriela Oanta

Gabriela A. Oanta is associate professor of public international law, Director of 'Salvador de Madariaga' University Institute for European Studies and Director of the European Documentation Centre at the University of A Coruña (Spain). She is co-convenor of the Interest Group on the Law of the Sea (SEALAW) within the European Society of International Law. She also acts as one of the Partner Coordinator of the University of A Coruña team in the framework of the MAPS Network. She has been a member of different research groups and projects financed by various international and Spanish research institutions. Since 2008, her research has been focused on international and European law of the sea, international organizations, irregular migration by sea, and business and human rights at sea.

Jana Jakimovska

Jana Jakimovska is Associate Professor of painting at the Academy of Fine Arts at Goce Delchev University. Her field being painting, painting technologies and drawing, lately she has been focused on teaching Nude drawing, Visual perspective, and Digital painting.

She got her BA and MA at the department of painting at the Faculty of Fine Arts at the University Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje.

As an artist, she works in painting, photography, public space installations, and illustration. Her latest artistic work focuses on the aspect of feminism viewed through the body, the self, sexuality, and the position of women in today's society. She has had 20 solo exhibitions in New York, Berlin, Belgrade, Pristina, Skopje, Kumanovo, Shtip, Kavadarci and Gevgelija, and has participated in over 80 group exhibitions in the USA, Germany, Italy, Lithuania, Turkey, Greece, Serbia, Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, and North Macedonia.

As a mentor, she has been working with students on various types of projects: exhibitions of paintings, drawings, posters, both concentrating on the technical and artistic aspects, but also tackling important subjects in contemporary society, such as migration, censorship, freedom of speech, equality, violence against women, and discrimination.

Maja Savić-Bojanić

Maja Savić-Bojanić received her Ph.D. from the University of Buckingham (UK) and is currently teaching in the Department of Political Science and International Relations at the Sarajevo School of Science and Technology (SSST). Her research and publications focus on national minority groups and group identity issues in Bosnia-Herzegovina. Her other interests include migrations and diaspora, right-wing extremism and populism. She holds the title of an honorary professor affiliation with the University of Exeter (UK), where she has been teaching at the MA Applied Security Strategy programme for the past three years.

Zhaneta Poposka

Zhaneta Poposka has Ph.D in international human rights law and is teaching at the Macedonian state University Goce Delchev-Shtip as associate professor from 2013. She publishes in the area of human rights and politics, law and comparative research. Has extensive knowledge in the international legal systems and specialization in human rights law, gender equality and gender-based violation, anti-discrimination, hate crime and hate speech, disability rights, European Court of Human Rights and Court of Justice of the European Union jurisprudence, asylum and migration. She works in the OSCE

Mission to Skopje for more than 17 years in the Rule of Law and Human Rights Unit. She also serves as educator in the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors from 2012 till nowadays. Through her career professor Poposka developed more than 70 legal analysis and published around 40 books and publications in the area of international human rights law. Some of her books and publications includes: European Union: Law and Politics (2020), Analysis of the Political Participation of Persons with Disabilities (2019), Human Rights (2018), Anti-Discrimination (2017), Research Report: Impact of Stereotypes and Ethnic Distance on the Phenomena of Discrimination, Hate Speech and Hate Crime (2017), Disability Discrimination in International Human Rights Law (2015).

Ana Nikodinovska Krsetvska

Ana Nikodinovska Krsetvska is Associate Professor in EU Law and EU Foreign Policy and Head of Department of International Relations and EU Law at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev – Stip (North Macedonia). Dr Nikodinovska Krsetvska finished BA and MA studies in Italy (L’Orientale – Napoli and Alma Mater – Bologna) and obtained her PhD in Studies for European integration at the University Ss. Cyril and Methodius in Skopje. She is the coordinator for the University Goce Delcev – Stip of two Jean Monnet projects: Migration and Asylum Polic Systems (MAPS) and New European Borderlands (BORDEURS), and of the Jean Monnet Module: EU – Western Balkans: Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs, for the Macedonian University. Her current research is focused on European asylum and migration policies vis-à-vis national approaches of Western Balkan states, with specific attention to migration cooperation, the prevention and combating of illegal migration, and the outsourcing and externalization of European security measures towards third countries.

Olga Koshevaliska

Olga Koshevaliska is Associate Professor in Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Juvenile Criminal Law and International Criminal Law and Dean of the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev – Stip (North Macedonia). Dr Koshevaliska completed her Bachelor, LL.M and PhD Studies at the Faculty of Law “Iustinianus Primus”, St. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje. The title of her PhD thesis is Privacy vs. Security when exchanging personal data in criminal matters in EU. She has attended multiple study visits and trainings, both at home and abroad, and she participates in different national and international research projects, among which two Jean Monnet projects: Migration and Asylum Policies System (MAPS) and New Borderlands in Europe (BORDEURS). She also participates in the activities of the Jean Monnet Module EU – Western Balkans: Cooperation on Justice and Home Affairs. Dr Koshevaliska is a national expert in projects regarding Juvenile Justice. Her main research interests lie in the criminal law area, international criminal law, asylum policy and juvenile justice, and her latest research work focus on the impact on Covid – 19 on asylum policy in North Macedonia.

Elena Maksimova

Elena Maksimova is Assistant Professor in Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, Organized Crime and Criminology and also Vice-Dean for Education at the Faculty of Law, University Goce Delcev – Stip (North Macedonia). Maksimova has finished her Bachelor, LL.M and PhD Studies at the Faculty of Law “Iustinianus Primus”, St. Cyril and Methodius University in Skopje. The title of her PhD thesis is Female crime, with a focus on victimological contribution. She has attended multiple conferences, seminars and trainings, both at home and abroad, and she regularly participates in different national and international research projects, among which the Jean Monnet MAPS project. She is also coach of student teams participating in international competitions in the area of human rights law. Her main research interest lies in the fields of criminal law, criminology, victimology, penology, human rights and freedoms, international criminal law, and lately also in the criminological side of migration and asylum.

Aleksandar Dimovski

preparing his MSc in the Security/Human Rights area.

Aleksandar Dimovski is a certified Fundamental rights specialist, trainer, and assessor, a practitioner with more than 20 years of experience in migration issues and combating cross-border crime. For the last 5 years he is a part of the FRONTEX development team who developed training for Fundamental rights, Child protection, Combating Cross Border Crimes and Advanced profiling. He delivered and assessed all the training on national and EU level. Started cooperation with MAPS Network from last year in the area of Migration, Human Rights, and Security issues. He started his police education as a cadet in the last generation of the High Police School in Skopje (1996-2000). He graduated and received a Bachelor's Degree at the Faculty for Detectives and Security, University FON-Skopje, where he is

Milica Shutova

Milica Shutova is an Assistant professor at the Faculty of Law, at University Goce Delchev in Shtip, Republic of North Macedonia and she is part of the MAPS Network. She is an Assistant professor at the Department of Civil Law, and her research interests span is in the area of civil procedure law, among others, family law, executive procedure. She has participated in several scientific research and application projects, as well as more than 30 scientific conferences. Shutova was a lecturer at several civil law seminars. Since 2018, it has been the National Tutor of the Council of Europe's HELP program.

Giuseppe Cataldi

Giuseppe Cataldi is full Professor of International Law and Director of the Department of Social and Human Sciences in the University of Napoli "L'Orientale". He is also the Coordinator of the European Network Jean Monnet "MAPS" (Migration and Asylum Policy Systems. Weaknesses, Shortcomings and Reform Proposals), former Director of the "Centre of Excellence Jean Monnet on the Protection of Migrants' Rights in the Mediterranean Sea" and former holder of a "Jean Monnet" ad personam Chair on the "Protection of Human Rights in the European Union". He is the President of the International Association for the Law of the Sea (AssIDMer) and the author and editor of many articles and books on International Law and European Union Law. He serves as EMUNI (Euro- Mediterranean University) Management Board Member (former Senate Member) and as Visiting Professor in several Universities abroad. He is the former Director of the “International Institute for Juridical Studies”, CNR (Italian National Research Council). He has expertise as consultant for many international as well as national Institutions (including the Italian Parliament, 2019) on migration issues and private law firms, pleading before international courts. He was a member of the Italian delegation to the 21st session of the UNESCO World Heritage Committee (1997). He was legal advisor to the European Union Commission - Directorate General for Fisheries, on the legal issues of fisheries management in the Mediterranean and, in this capacity, he was also a member of the official delegation of the European Commission to the Diplomatic Conference in Crete (December 1994). He is the co-founder and co-director of “Diritti umani e diritto internazionale”, co-director of “The Italian Yearbook of International Law” and a member of the Italian Society of International Law (Vice-President, 2012 - 2013) and of the Société française de droit international.

Ivana Miteva

Ivana Miteva is a 22-year-old student that has a bachelor’s degree in Journalism and Public relations from the Faculty of Law of the University “Goce Delchev” in Shtip and is currently pursuing a Master’s in Strategic Communications. She has a passion for writing and is constantly striving toward learning something new.

During her studies, Ivana has participated in many workshops and conferences (organized by the University) covering diverse topics and was even part of the Erasmus + program one semester, expanding her horizons in Maribor, Slovenia. She was part of the University Radio where she had the opportunity to experience what working in media is like, firsthand.

She is great at doing research, gathering information, and making something worth reading out of them. During her studies she gained great knowledge and skills. At the moment she works as a content writer at a marketing agency.

Irena Zdravkova

Irena Zdravkova is a law graduate, and currently she is working in the Macedonian Young Lawyers Association (MYLA). She graduated at Iustinianus Primus Law Faculty under the Ss. Cyril and Methodius University of Skopje, in 2008. She passed the bar exam in 2010. Her special interest is international law, refugee law and human rights protection. In 2015, during refugee and migration crisis she led the emergency protection component of the Danish Refugee Council for North Macedonia. She is actively involved in activities for prevention and combating human trafficking and she is a member of the anti-trafficking mobile team in Tetovo. She is author and co-author of few analyses related to combating the human trafficking and protection of migrants and refugees.

Cristina Bunea

Cristina Bunea graduated at the Romanian American University in Bucharest, Faculty of Law Dissertation in Criminal Law on "Theoretical and Practical Aspects of the Rape Crime". She has finished her MA in International Relations, Analysis and Conflict Resolution at the National School of Political and Administrative Studies in Bucharest and has obtained her PhD diploma with Magna cum laude on 'Respect for human rights in the field of asylum and migration in the context of global fight against terrorism', at the Bucharest University, Faculty of Law. She currently works as a UNHCR Representation in North Macedonia as a Protection Officer and has working experience within different UNHCR Representations for more than 15 years.

Vanja Lazaridis – IOM Skopje

Vanja Lazaridis is national staff of IOM Mission in North Macedonia in capacity of Project Manager supporting protection operations as a response to the Migrants Refugee Crisis managing number of emergency and protection projects.

Since joining IOM Mission to North Macedonia, Ms. Lazaridis has been working on projects that range from post-conflict transition initiatives to emergency protection. Since 2016 she specialized in emergency responses, natural disasters assistance, early recovery, camp coordination and camp management. Also, as of recent she supports the IOM projects in the area of migration environment, climate change MECC. Ms. Lazaridis is born in Skopje, Republic of North Macedonia and holds Degree in Law.

Mersiha Smailovikj

Mersiha Smailovikj graduated from Ss. Cyril and Methodius at the University of Law, and currently doing her master's study on International law, at the same University. She participated in the Vital Voices Advocates Empowerment Project in the Balkans in 2019 GBV among refugees and migrants.

She is active in the field of advocating for the rights of refugees and migrants, discrimination against Muslims and Islamophobia, gender equality, rights of ethnic groups etc.

As a part of NGO LEGIS, she is publishing monthly and yearly reports about the situation of the refugee and migrants in North Macedonia. Her research papers on the refugee rights, islamophobia, women rights were published in several local and international publications. She was actively involved in numerous humanitarian missions globally. Mersiha has been awarded for her activism for the right of refugees, also for her involvement of promotion of human rights on focus of women in Macedonian society.